Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III X

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:
Western Resource Advocates (WRA) is a regional nonprofit advocacy organization fighting climate change and its impacts to sustain the environment, economy, and people of the West. As the region's go-to experts for more than three decades, WRA's on-the-ground work advances

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ..... Yes X No
If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ..... Yes X No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 7,407,337. including grants of $ 52,000.) (Revenue $ 110,870.)
Clean Energy - The vision of our clean energy work is that our homes, buildings and transportation systems will be powered by clean energy and the West is prospering in a zero-carbon economy. WRA uses public policy to align the financial interests of electricity producers and consumers with decarbonizing electricity production and electrifying other sectors of the economy. By working to retire coal, replace generation with clean energy and transportation, advance clean energy markets, and modernize the grid, WRA is transforming the region.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 2,842,093. including grants of $ 52,284.) (Revenue $ 214,487.)
Healthy Rivers - The vision of our healthy rivers work is that Western rivers are thriving even in the face of climate change and these critical waterways are protected to support ecosystems, local communities, and world-class recreation. Water is conserved and key river reaches are revitalized and managed to support healthy river ecology, sustainable water use, and resilience to a changing climate. WRA develops, advocates for, and implements policies, programs and river management that saves water and protects rivers through improving stream flow, reducing water use, and improved water planning.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 2,101,432. including grants of $ 50,000.) (Revenue $)
Western Lands - The vision of our Western lands work is that at least half of the land in each major ecoregion are legally protected in order to conserve biodiversity in the face of rapid habitat loss and climate change. Public lands need to be shielded from new development, restored, and managed sustainably for ecological health. Layers of protections ensure diverse wildlife habitat, thriving populations of native species, and enduring cultural values of lands and watersheds.

4d Other program services (Describe on Schedule O.)
(Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4e Total program service expenses 12,350,862.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Part I, Line 3:
The executive committee (which serves as the compensation committee) establishes and maintains a competitive compensation program for the President of the organization, using comparable compensation data from other non-profit organizations to benchmark pay and other published survey data, when appropriate, from for-profit organizations for specific functional competencies such as law, finance, and human resources. Together with data from the comparable local and regional organizations, data from these market segments is used to form a "market composite" to assess the competitiveness of compensation. The Committee meets annually to review the compensation program and make recommendations for any changes to the board, as appropriate. The president is responsible for establishing and maintaining a competitive compensation program for all other key executives of the organization. Deliberations and conclusions of both the compensation committee and the Board of Directors are contemporaneously documented in the respective minutes.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:
clean energy, protects air, land, water, and wildlife.

WRA develops, advocates for, and implements science-based policies informed by diverse communities and stakeholders to create a healthier and more equitable future for all Western communities. WRA creates transformational change by driving action at the state level to effectively address complex conservation problems in the West.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1a:
The board of directors may designate and appoint one or more committees, each of which shall have at least one director. Committees shall have the authority of the Board of Directors to manage the nonprofit, except that no committee can amend the bylaws; change the committee membership or the directors of the nonprofit; amend the articles of incorporation; adopt a plan to merge or consolidate with another corporation, or adopt a plan to convert to another type of entity; authorize the sale, lease, exchange or mortgage of all or substantially all of the nonprofit's assets outside the ordinary course of business; distribute the assets of the nonprofit; or amend any resolution of the Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:
The Form 990 is presented to the Finance Committee by the WRA's Vice President of Finance and Administration for review. Once approved by the Finance Committee, the Form 990 is provided to the board for review contemporaneously with filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:
The conflict of interest policy is monitored by requiring annual affirmation of each member of the board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:
The executive committee (which serves as the compensation committee) establishes and maintains a competitive compensation program for the President of the organization, using comparable compensation data from other non-profit organizations to benchmark pay and other published survey data, and when appropriate, from for-profit organizations for specific functional competencies such as law, finance, and human resources. Together with data from the comparable local and regional organizations, data from these market segments is used to form a "market composite" to assess the competitiveness of compensation. The Committee meets annually to review the compensation program and make recommendations for any changes to the board, as appropriate, based on market-based compensation studies. The president is responsible for establishing and maintaining a competitive compensation program for all other key executives of the organization. Deliberations and conclusions of both the compensation committee and the board of directors are contemporaneously documented in the respective minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:
The audited financial statements and form 990 are available on WRA's website. WRA makes its governing documents and conflict of interest policy available to the public upon request.
